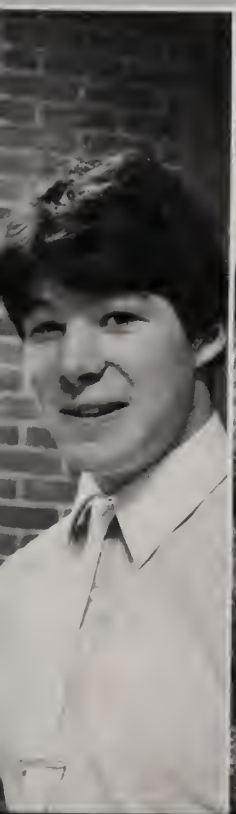
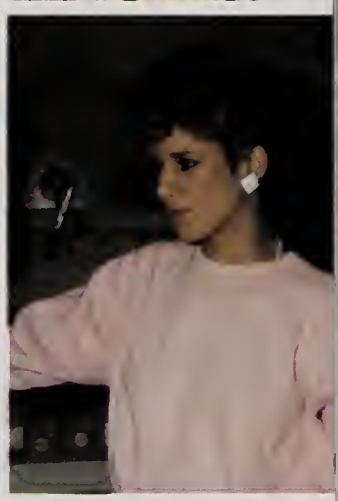
1985

foreward

Graduating from Sharon High School has been a goal we have all sought to achieve. It is about to become a memory. Therefore, the staff of the 1985 Marsengold hopes that this yearbook will capture the essence of the past four years in order to keep those memories alive.

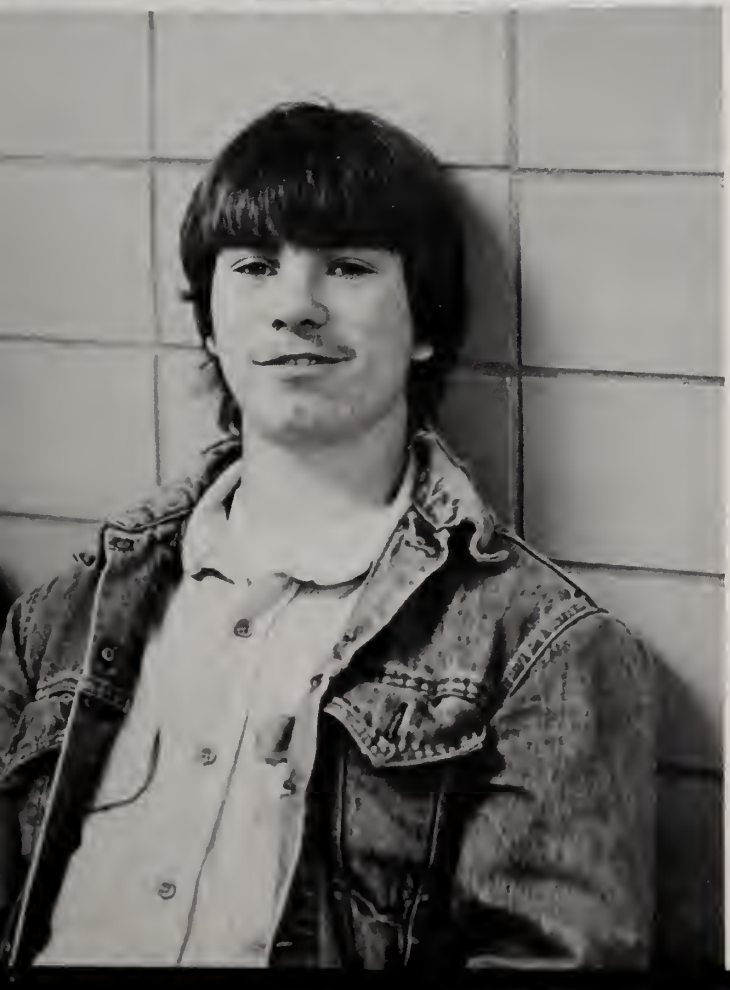


seniors 85



The class of 1985 was not an ordinary group of students. From day one of our Freshman year, we let the entire school know that we were not just another disoriented group of ninth graders.

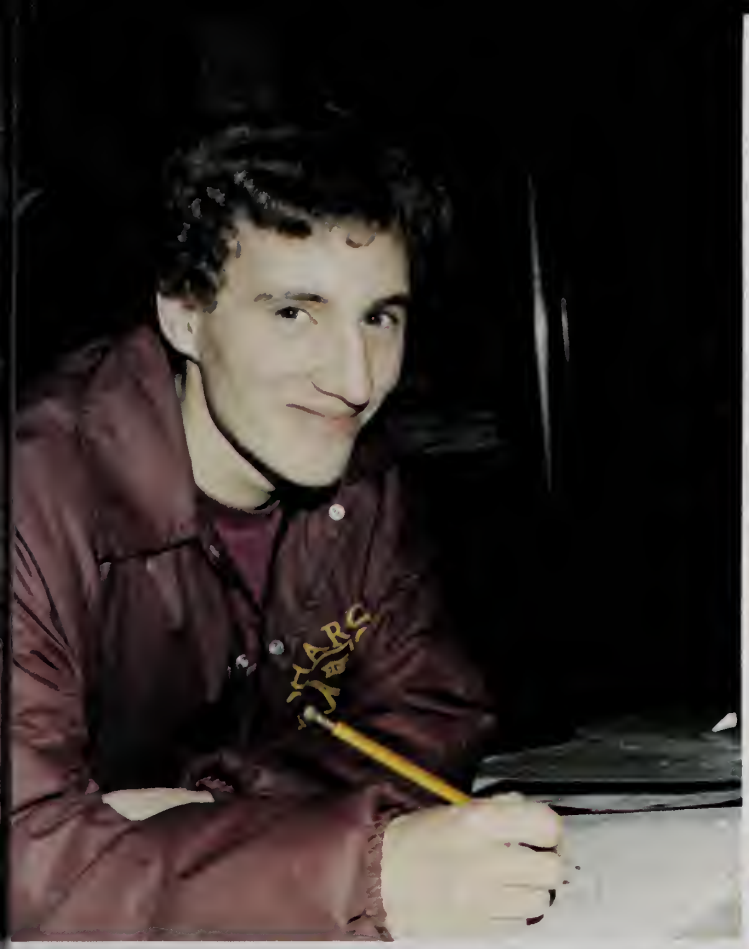
seniors 85



Freshman year — Getting used to the school. "Where's the pool?" Pep Rally, what's that? Were we supposed to make posters? Nobody told us about any Homecoming Float! Senior attacks with squirt guns . . . But we don't want to carry the senior's trays! "Beware of getting flushed . . . " I hate silent LHB Study! Why are we the only ones carrying around so many books?

seniors 85

Finally Sophomores! Finally organized! Finally leaving our mark on the school! Wow! Remember . . . winning Halloween Dress Up Day? Homecoming? Pep Rally? We beat the Seniors? Of course!



seniors 85

Getting class t-shirts. Two class presidents in one year? Santa Claus comes to Sharon High, Activities Day, Hallway Poster Plaster, twelve hours at Riverside Amusement Park!? . . . More silent studies! The birth of '85 Alive!!!!!!!

seniors 85

Junior year — winning homecoming and pep rally again! Nothing can stop us now! "Would anybody like to buy a magazine?" Getting our new advisor. Santa Claus comes to town again. Awesome Talent Show!

seniors 85

Prom Panic . . . "What kind of outfit should I get?" What color? Will he remember my corsage? What's a boutonniere? What table are we sitting at?

seniors 85

P.S.A.T.'s, S.A.T.'s . . . "Who got an 800 in math?" Where did all the honors courses go? NO MORE SILENT STUDIES!! Senioritis sets in early!

seniors 85

Senior year at last! The eyeopener, candy store, and the yearbook are now ours! "Homework, what's that?" "Books? They're in my locker!"

Remember . . . proms and class day? Graduation . . . Can it be over so soon? We'll always remember good friends and special times. Although we have to leave, the spirit of '85 is alive and will endure in our memories forever.

dedication

We dedicate this yearbook to the fulfillment of our individual dreams. While graduation is an end of one dream, it is also a stepping stone towards the achievement of others. Though dreams differ from person to person, we all realize that none of our dreams will be achieved without some sacrifice, some setbacks, some questioning of purpose. If the dreams are truly worthwhile, we know that they will go beyond a sense of self towards a larger sense of community. Over the past four years, we all have changed, and we will continue to change as we grow, our dreams changing with us. Because of change, most of our dreams probably will never be realized. Perhaps the important thing is not the achievement of our dreams, but that we continue to dream.

We, the class of 1985, would like to extend our gratitude to Jean Conley for all the work she has done on behalf of our class. From the time she assumed her role of advisor at the beginning of our sophomore year, she helped us with our class events and activities. She was never reluctant to give up any of her time. She was always available for advice; she was more than helpful. She went beyond the duties of an ordinary advisor and became our friend. For this we are extremely grateful and wish to show our thanks to our advisor and friend, Jean Conley.

On May 11, 1984, the Junior Prom was held at the Nicholas restaurant in Norwood. The pink, grey, and white color scheme set a romantic mood as the band, Champagne, entertained the class of '85 and their guests. Heather Keefe, who was selected Prom Queen, presided regally over a court which included Michelle Parker, Rachel Elkind, and Lauren Coill. All were presented with a bouquet of roses by the class. To top off the evening, guests were invited back to the Community Center for an all night party sponsored by a number of civic organizations.

homecoming 85

Stephanie Pavlakis was elected the 1985 homecoming queen. Her court was composed of the following seniors: Rachel Elkind, Michelle Parker, Janet Shapiro, Marcia Silverstein, Tracy Tattleman, Brenda Walsh, and their escorts. The Sophomore class won the prize for the best float, overcoming strong competition from the other classes. The Class of 1985, having the greatest number of students in attendance, won the prize for the most spirited class. It was a homecoming the seniors will long remember.

The girl's tennis team had an excellent season last year, finishing with a 10-6 record. They received terrific leadership from captain Deanne Waitz . . . Juniors Lori and Lisa Edmonds, Rachel Edelston, and Jennifer Goldman made strong contributions as did sophomores Ann Kerzner, Cori Shanbar, Sarah Delagi and Debbie Bickoff, Freshmen Kim Gainsboro, Sheryl Nason, Roberta Myers, and Sheila Goloboy look promising for the 1985 season.

The Sharon boy's tennis team had another excellent season with a record of 14-2, going into the playoffs as Hockomock Champs. The team just barely lost to the third seed Hingham (2-3). This year's team was lead by the tri-captains, Mike Clayman, Paul Newman and Chris Titleman. Helping the team to its success was the valuable Jeff Basch and Eric Nadler who played second doubles. At first doubles were Mike Clayman and Craig Gainsboro. Coming through with many crucial singles victories were Mike Barry, Marc Schwabb and Glynn Lloyd.

The varsity soccer team, under the guidance of new coach Russ Dupont, had a solid season. Led by senior defensemen Andy Davidson and Brian Stutman, the team started the season with wins over Oliver Ames and Canton. The remainder of the year found the team plagued by injuries. Key players such as Davidson, and juniors Ron Goodman, Dinh Tranh, Adam Krent and Eric Oliver were all sidelined at various times. The team continued to play respectably, and finished the season strongly. With nearly the entire starting team returning next year, coach Dupont is looking forward to an excellent season.

The 1984 Girl's Cross-Country team was a team with a lot of spirit. Under the leadership of Co-Captains Sarita Bhargava and Marcia Silverstein and the fine coaching of Ed Norris, the girls finished the season with an impressive 6-2 record. The key to their success was their teamwork. They managed to assemble the largest team ever with a large contingency of underclassmen playing major roles in the teams victories.

The 1984 Boy's Cross-Country team was composed of a well balanced team of 5 experienced seniors and 6 ambitious freshmen. Lead by Co-Captains Mike Hickey and John Melanson the team finished the injury riddled season with 4 wins and 4 losses. Brian Boyle, Joe Craft, and Scott Robins all contributed to the teams success. This being Coach Alan Winetraubs first year, things look even more promising for the upcoming season.

The 1984 Field Hockey team had an excellent season. Led by Captain Judy McCaffrey, the team stood up to the tough Hockomock League teams of Canton, Stoughton, and Oliver Ames. Making strong contributions in the games were seniors Shelley Bridges, Patti Briggs, Lori Curtis, Amy Devlin, Marge Lawlor, Ann Parker, and Pam Teplitz. All the girls on the team put in a lot of time and hard work this, a developmental year. Upcoming seasons will definitely be super.

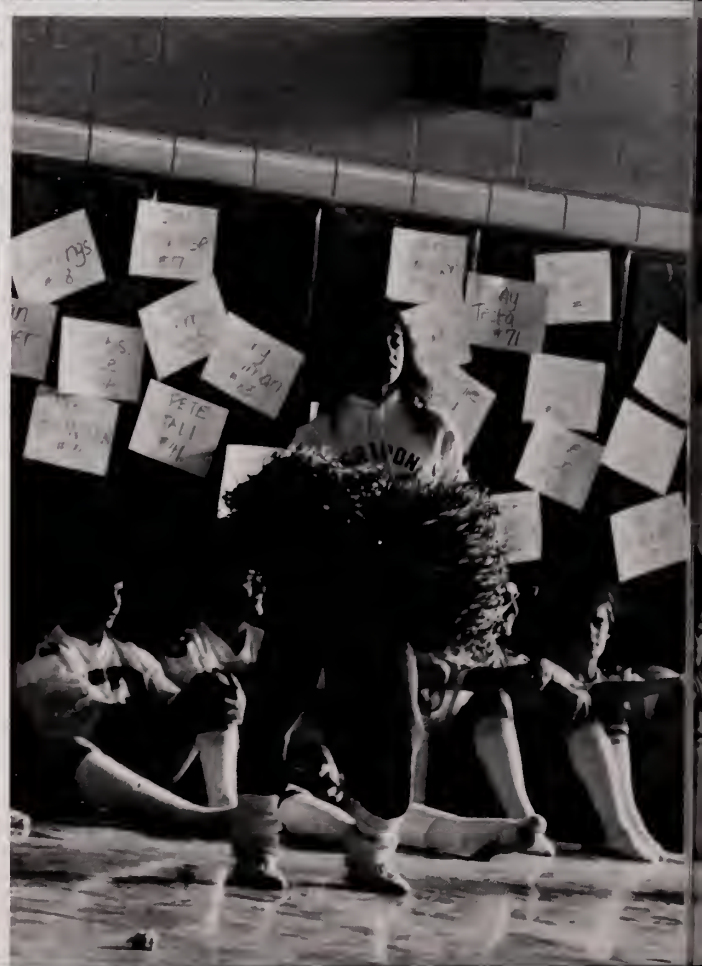
A cold bleak November day was brightened up by the first annual Powder Puff Game which ended in a tie with rival Oliver Ames, 6-6. For entertainment, there was halftime show consisting of cheerleaders from both teams. They added spirit, enthusiasm, support, and all-around fun to the game. Because of the success of the first game and the support the girls varsity club received a powder puff tradition has been established.

halloween dress up day

The large group of odd characters that roamed the halls of Sharon High assembled in the auditorium at the end of the day for the third annual Halloween Assembly. This event got off to a rousing start with the film "The Bride of Frankenstein" but it was the parade of the classes that received the most enthusiastic response. The seniors, with 68% of the class in costume, won the most spirited award. The Sophomores were the best dressed class. In addition, a number of individual prizes were awarded in the catagories of scariest, funniest, ugliest, most original, and best dressed. A be-witching time was had by all.

thanksgiving pep rally



"Everybody run! The homecoming queen has a gun!" Hard working Eagle supporters from each class spent the morning plastering the walls and bleachers with posters. After the football team was introduced, Cheerleaders, Majorettes, and Pom Pom Girls performed spirit raising routines. In the stands the most boisterous demonstration was by the senior class, with the sophomore class a roudy runnerup.

The Sharon High Drama Club's production of Neil Simon's Plaza Suite was a tremendous challenge successfully met by its talented cast and crew. Not only were the on-stage performances of seniors Amy Nabi, Nathan Gopen, Mike Sullivan and Josh Eisenthal commendable but the back-stage work of senior George Cleveland and many others contributed to this major accomplishment.

Special thanks to Mr. Newton for his experienced guidance and to Josh Eisenthal for his dedication and hard work over the last four years. Congratulations to the whole cast on an excellent performance.

In Memoriam

The many individuals who were fortunate enough to encounter Joe Courteau during his years at Sharon High School knew that they had met a gentleman in every sense of the word. He was always warm and friendly, always more than ready to help out, to give a little extra in his self-effacing way.

As a teacher, coach, collegue, and friend, Joe Courteau will be long and affectionately remembered.
